

LITTLE BERRY

Cabernet Sauvignon

The winemakers at Rosemount Estate know that good things come in small packages. This Langhorne Creek Cabernet Sauvignon is the perfect example with savoury aromatics, dark fruits and fine tannins. It's Little Berry in physique with a big berry impact!

Winemaker	Luke Mallaby
Vineyard Region	Langhorne Creek
Vintage	2018
Colour	Deep ruby to garnet red
Nose	Pleasing savoury aromatics of tomato concassé, bay leaf and fresh sage, fruit spectrum showing black currant, cranberry and dark chocolate
Palate	Fine grained tannins with firm structure support the savoury elements of the wine.. Black currant playing it's part along with some subtler red fruits. The wine is well balanced with great length, a friendly yet confident intensity and a well polished finish.
Maturation	Combined French and American oak and stainless steel maturation,
Food Matches	Chicken Cacciatore or Coq au Vin, Hearty Pea and Ham Hock soup with hot buttered crusty sourdough or Woodfired Napoli Pizza
pH	3.66
Acidity	6.6g/L
Alcohol	14.5%
Residual Sugar	0 g/L

